

The Carson Daily Appeal

CARSON CITY:
Tuesday, March 11, 1873.

GRACE IN THE LOCAL DEPARTMENT OF THE "APPEAL."—It is fair to say, that we should make mention of the fact that the local department of the Appeal, which has lately been under the ministrations of Mr. D. R. Sessions, is now released into the hands of the editor of this paper, who will hereafter perform all the editorial functions of the editorial office, heavy business, radio-grams, circus performances and general utilitarian duties as he formerly did before the Minnesota were involved. This is somewhat peculiar, but it is for better or worse—like a new broom and butter and shoes, and must be endured; and the grass being shaved and it being needful to feed the stock, a certain amount of expenses is made imperatively necessary; and while we thus hang our head upon our sleeve, let us not fail of making it understood that it is no small sacrifice to sever the pleasant relations which have grown up in our sanctum between the senior and the reporter; for Mr. Sessions, pleasant writer and accomplished scholar as he is, is quite as much entitled to distinction for the rare and excellent qualities which nature gave him and which make him a valuable and ever pleasant friend and acquaintance as he is for the many handsome accomplishments he so gracefully and modestly wears. Our friends may be certain that he leaves this office only because of the feebleness of the revenue which must be employed in meeting the accruing liabilities of this establishment. The best consolation we can have is that he can do better, presumably, elsewhere.

Keeping the Cases on Sunday.
Sports will henceforth refrain from their gambling on Sunday. If the faro-ban is to be used at all on the Sabbath, it will be turned upside down and made to do duty as a recipient of pennies for the conversion and clothing of the miserable natives of a land where gambling with cards is one of the unlearned arts, and where Sunday is merged into a common waste of previous time; the roulette table will cease to revolve, save as it shall turn to the music of church organs and the requirements of the religious grab bag; the mysterious instrument employed in the game of chuck-a-luck shall be as mere idle and curious contrivances; and the monte deck shall have no other "ace" than that which leads to the Sunday school and the sanctuary. We know but little of this movement save that it was first broached in our hearing yesterday by our rather severe and puritanical friend, Wesley George. The Christian name of this exemplary gentleman is a key to his spirit of devotion. They who named him in honor of John Wesley failed not to inject into his tender mind the germs of this now self-asserting religious sentiment. Brother Mudge was active and ardent in giving an impetus to the good movement. Who can gaze upon that face so indicative of a regard for spiritual things and not understand the depths of genuine fervor which moved him to take so warm an interest in this matter. As to Deacon Marshall, what else could have been expected of one who for so many months has been in view of the moral examples set by Mark Gauge and Charley May? The Magnolia is fairly redolent with the incense of secular piety. These worthy men have done well not only to have asserted their own hearty and well known predilections for the observance of Christian forms and ceremonies, but for having rescued from the tight-casing grasp of Satan such persistent sinners as Tump Winston and Jerome Thorington! Henceforth let the thirteen characters of the hitherto wicked faro lay-out represent the twelve old cardinal virtues with this new one of the gambler's observance of the Sabbath added thereto; let all "coppers" find their way into the contribution box, and let all spits and four time losers be banished to the company of the "excommunicated."

Reduction.—In consequence of the discount on silver coin, the premium of four (4) per cent. hitherto allowed to depositors of silver bullion on its purchase for conversion into silver coins by the U. S. Branch Mint in this place, has been reduced, as will be seen by the following instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury. The price hitherto allowed was $1 21 per standard ounce which has been reduced to $1 18 per standard ounce.

WASHINGTON, D. C.,
March 7, 1873.
To H. F. Rice, Supt. Branch Mint, Carson City, Nevada.
The purchasing price of silver for your Branch Mint is fixed at one dollar and eighteen cents per standard ounce, and standard silver will be calculated at the same rate per ounce in the accounts.
G. S. BOUTWELL,
Secretary of the Treasury.

RUNAWAY.—A fine bay horse ridden by Mr. Johnson, who is in the employ of the Summit Flume Company, was tied in front of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office yesterday, when taking freight he pulled back and carried the post, some twelve or thirteen feet high, away with him up the street at full speed. He stumbled and came near falling in the gulch in front of Charley Legate's, but gathering himself, with the heavy post still retained by the stout halter, he ran off again as fast as his legs could carry him. A hostler from Winnie's stable ran out to head him, and when being thus stopped for a moment the long post tripped him up and he fell on his side into a mud puddle, near the Plaza corner, from which he emerged considerably changed in appearance but probably not badly hurt.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Samuel Wright of the Land Office, returned yesterday from a short trip to Sacramento where he left his family on a visit to his wife's mother. Mr. Waller of the Genoa Hot Springs was also in town, with health much improved. We notice also, Major Ramsey in our midst. The Major, in respect to wit and corporation, is uncle George Tuffy's brother—each being a terror to men who will readily-made clothing. The Major, we believe, remains with us a day or so.

U. S. BRANCH MINT REPORT.—The Superintendent of the Carson City Branch Mint received yesterday, 11,245 ounces of unparted bars from San Francisco, one-fifth of which was gold and the balance silver, sent to the Carson Mint for coinage. On the same day the receipt of bullion, gold and silver, from Nevada mines, was 16,962 ounces, sent to the Mint for melting and assaying.

SCHMIDTKE.—Yesterday morning, between 4 and 5 o'clock, one of the best hearted shoe stitchers and some other fellow of equally good disposition, probably, had a harmless set-to, as far as they were concerned, but very damaging to one of Friskie's glass saloon doors, through which one of the combatants was tumbled by the other.

JONES.—Our old friend of the County Board and former associate on the County Committee, who got shot at Empire by accident the other night while honestly straddling a blind in a small game of draw, is housed yet, but is improving. Jones' mother wouldn't have been hit as he was! This should be a lesson to him—not to play poker in such exposed places—or not to expose such places when he is playing poker. But Jones is a good fellow—growler though he is, at times; and we heartily hope he may not be altered by his mishap.
